Introduction

1. Chinese Migration and 'White' Networks, c.1850-1902

2. The Transvaal Labour 'Problem' and the Chinese Solution

3. Greater Britain in South Africa: Colonial Nationalisms and Imperial Networks

4. A Question of Honour: slavery, sovereignty and the legal framework

5. Sex, Violence and the Chinese: The 1905-6 Moral Panic

6. Adapting the Stereotype: Race and Administrative Control

7. Political Repercussions

Conclusion: Racializing Empire
Appendix A: List of Key Figures
Bibliography