

Contents

|                                                                                               |      |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| Acknowledgments                                                                               | ix   |
| List of Abbreviations                                                                         | xiii |
| Introduction                                                                                  | 1    |
| 1 The Angel Gabriel in the Tropics: British Guiana, 1856                                      | 15   |
| 2 Causes: How British Imperialism Conjured the Very Violence It Sought to Suppress            | 35   |
| 3 Trouble on the Queen's Highways: Belfast, 1872                                              | 55   |
| 4 Interpretations: How Communal Riots Confirmed and Strengthened Britain's Civilizing Mission | 79   |
| 5 The Ruling Race Stumbles: Bombay, 1874                                                      | 103  |
| 6 Policing: How Cultural Assumptions Guided the Policing of Communal Riots                    | 127  |
| 7 The Cow Row: India, 1893–1894                                                               | 155  |
| 8 Consequences: How Communal Riots Weakened the British Empire                                | 177  |
| Notes                                                                                         | 203  |
| Bibliography                                                                                  | 261  |
| Index                                                                                         | 279  |