Table of Contents

Introduction: Patronage and the Politics of Knowledge, 1660-1720

1. Curious Collectors and Infamous Interlopers: Samuel Baron and the EIC settlements in Southeast and East Asia

2. Linguistic Landscapes: Early English studies of Malay

3. Toleration and Translation: English versions of two Hindu texts from Bengal

4. Botanical and Medical Networks: Madras through the collections of two EIC surgeons

5. Bio-prospecting and Experimenting: Producing and Using An Historical Relation of Ceylon

6. Transportation and Transplantation: Slave Knowledge and Company Plantations