Contents

List of Figures 7

Preface 11

Introduction: The Ottoman Jihad, the German Jihad and the Sacralization of War 13
Erik-Jan Zürcher

1 Christiaan Snouck Hurgronje, "Holy War" and Colonial Concerns 29
Léon Buskens

2 The Ottoman Proclamation of Jihad 53
Mustafa Aksakal

3 (Not) Using Political Islam: The German Empire and its Failed Propaganda Campaign in the Near and Middle East, 1914–1918 and Beyond 71
Tilman Lüdke

4 Domestic Aspects of Ottoman Jihad: The Role of Religious Motifs and Religious Agents in the Mobilization of the Ottoman Army 95
Mehmet Beşikçi

5 Ottoman Jihad or Jihads: The Ottoman Shīʿī Jihad, the Successful One 117
M. Şükrü Hanioğlu

6 Propaganda or Culture War: Jihad, Islam, and Nationalism in Turkish Literature during World War I 135
Erol Köroğlu

7 Gendering Jihad: Ottoman Muslim Women and War during the Early Twentieth Century 153
Nicole van Os

8 Architectural Jihad: The "Halbmondlager" Mosque of Wünsdorf as an Instrument of Propaganda 179
Martin Gussone

9 War, Propaganda and Architecture: Cemal Pasha's Restoration of Islamic Architecture in Damascus during World War I 223
Hans Theunissen

10 The Man Who Would Be Caliph: Sharīfian Propaganda in World War I 275
Joshua Teitelbaum

11 A German "Illusive Love": Rashīd Riḍā's Perceptions of the First World War in the Muslim World 305
Umar Ryad

12 John Buchan's British-Designed Jihad in Greenmantle 329
Ahmed K. al-Rawi

List of Contributors 347

Index 349